Globelink Uniexco Received Recognition Award from The Chamber of Commerce of Barcelona

Mr Joaquim Pueyo, founder of Globelink Uniexco, was honoured with a commemorative plaque on 21 October 2016 in recognition and appreciation of Globelink Uniexco's milestone in the past 50 years. The distinction was awarded by the Chamber of Commerce of Barcelona during the celebration of the Chamber's Annual Meeting 2016.

Mr. Pueyo attended the meeting accompanied by his daughter, Ms Silvia Pueyo, CEO of Globelink Uniexco. During the event, the President of the Chamber of Commerce commended on Globelink Uniexco's commitments to value-added services and technology hence providing top notch transport solutions for its customers.

Companies such as Globelink Uniexco are those that provide "messages for the future and not for the past", said Carles Puigdemont,

President of the Catalan Government while addressing the audience. Mr. Puigdemont highlighted the weight that "tradition, vocation, commitment and trajectory" have on the development of companies and assured that the attitude of these experienced companies "is what is good for a productive economy".

Globelink Uniexco, with a rich history dating back to 1966, was the first maritime cargo consolidation company in Spain with 50 years of experience in the field of cargo exports and imports. There are currently offices in 4 locations locally.
